

Natal Interpretation

An Astrological Profile for: Johnny Depp

PART ONE: THE INNER YOU

In Part One of the interpretations you will read two sections concerned with your individual traits.

The first section describes your ego (sun), emotional make-up (moon), learning and intellectual orientation (Mercury), relationships and sociability (Venus), and the expression and focus of your physical energy (Mars).

The second section describes how well you deal internally with the external situations that you experience in life. Your capacity for happiness (Jupiter), ability to tolerate restrictions and frustrations (Saturn), how you are associated with or relate to new or innovative ideas and methods, and radical ideas and events that upset the status quo (Uranus), how you are associated with or affected by public ideals, morality, and spirituality (Neptune), and how you are associated with or affected by public policies toward crime, toward the power of government and industry, and toward exploration, development, conservation and distribution of natural resources (Pluto).

SUN

The sun rules will power and ego. It is the core of your potential and uniqueness as an individual; who you are and what you are about. It represents the main direction and focus you want your life to take, and your determination to accomplish what you set out to do. It is your personal honesty and integrity, and the ability to command respect and authority, to impress and influence others.

SUN in GEMINI

☉ in II

As the third sign of the zodiac, Gemini represents the third stage in the evolution of man and his place in the universe. Gemini goes beyond the Aries need for the raw energy of survival and the Taurus need to physically touch and experience the material world. In Gemini, it is the intellect that man needs to develop in order to understand the universe. This stage is concerned primarily with information-gathering and Geminis never seem to stop collecting it. They need to express ideas and share information with others, but what they do with their information is another matter. The mature Gemini becomes a serious scholar and careful researcher. The immature Gemini turns into a gossip and the proverbial "jack-of all-trades and master of none".

Geminis readily adapt to change. This trait is a strength because it is a survival mechanism, and a weakness because it makes them vulnerable to the demands and influence of other people. The Twins are the astrological symbol of Gemini. Adopting a twin-like similarity to other people is easy for Geminis. They not only have a unique ability to understand what others are thinking, they also possess great cleverness for imitation. In this way they can maneuver themselves into many favorable positions. They can also lose sight of their own talents and ideas by being too willing and able to adopt the traits and immerse themselves in the personal situations of others. They tend to say what others want to hear instead of saying what they really think, or what they know to be the truth.

Geminis react intellectually to everything they experience in life. That is, before they take physical action, before they assess the practical worth of something, and before they sort out their true emotions, they try to analyze things objectively as a kind of mental exercise. Though it is generally not a true assessment, the intellectual orientation of Geminis can make it appear to others as though they are unfeeling or emotionally superficial.

Mercury, planet of the intellect (and communication in general) rules the sign Gemini. Those born with Sun in Gemini are talkative, quick witted, and have innate curiosity about everything. They keep themselves in a constant state of busyness, running here and there on errands or traveling from one city to another. Natural versatility and ever-changing interests give Geminis their multifaceted personalities. The eagerness and interest they have in what's going on around them contributes to an appearance of youthfulness (both physical and psychological) that most of them manage to retain throughout life. They have to learn to concentrate on one thing at a time, or at least on what they know can be accomplished efficiently and well. Easily jumping from one subject to another, they forget that others are not so nimble. They often have to be reminded to slow down and let others catch up with what they're talking about. They also have to be reminded to stop talking once in a while and listen. Sometimes they neglect to get all the facts before repeating information. Though they can be secretive about their personal affairs, they love to learn about everyone else. They enjoy mysteries and intrigue and don't mind becoming involved in behind the scenes antics of one sort or another. Always wanting to know everything gives them quite a store of information which in turn, makes them more interesting to others. Add to that their cheerful, friendly dispositions, and it isn't surprising that they get along so well in the world.

Since they are apt to spend more time talking than eating, many Geminis are able to stay fairly slim. Their body is usually very flexible and agile, and they enjoy gymnastics, bicycling, swimming, and other activities that keep them physically fit. Favorite sports are tennis, racquetball and similar games in which they can participate with a partner. As a rule, they are adept at tinkering with mechanical devices or doing repair work. Gemini talents also include design, interior decoration, arts and crafts, magic and illusion, and music.

Gemini colors are yellow and light blue. Vulnerable parts of the body are the arms, hands, fingers, lungs, and nervous system. Respiratory problems and various nervous conditions are common Gemini complaints. Agates are traditional Gemini birthstones. Appropriate to the multifaceted Gemini personality, this mineral is streaked with many colors. It may seem Gemini is scattered and thus weakened by the wide range of interests and abilities, but the steel-like hardness of agate is a reminder that the Gemini personality and character can be just as strong as it is varied. Gemini flowers include the lilac, azalea, and lily-of-the-valley.

MOON

The moon rules desire as opposed to ego, need as opposed to expediency or reason. It describes how you feel about yourself, how you handle relationships, and how you emotionally respond to situations and experiences. It describes the flow of your daily functions; physical, emotional, and mental. The moon represents your residence and domestic environment. It rules babies and young children, your mother and other important females in your life.

MOON in CAPRICORN

☾ in ♑

Except in the pursuit of pleasure (to which many of them can be quite dedicated) those born with the moon in an Earth sign are not emotionally spontaneous. They don't nonchalantly accept the responsibility of long-term relationships, or analyze emotional commitments merely as a mental exercise. They may hesitate to move at all unless they feel they are on solid ground, or there is some personal advantage to be gained by their emotional involvement. As lunar Earth sign personalities, those with moon in Capricorn are of a practical nature. Though willing to fulfill responsibilities for a relationship, they are often unable or unwilling to understand what the other person actually wants or needs. Capricorn's influence on these lunar personalities is demonstrated by their tendency to worry, and their need for structure and formality. They find it hard to relate to those who do not share their opinions and values. Reluctant or unable to discuss their own problems, they are nevertheless quite willing to help with the problems of others. It is never very easy for them to express their deepest emotions, to feel relaxed and content inside themselves. Fear of rejection is strong. Anything vague or unspecified in a relationship, whether business or personal, makes them feel insecure. They must know where they stand. Everything must be proper and legal. When it comes to romance and marriage, it may take them longer to find someone they can love as well as trust.

Capricorn moon personalities are dedicated to getting their own way and accomplishing personal goals. Ambitious and strong-willed, their efforts are primarily directed to their own advancement, though they can be very effective in helping others to progress. They enjoy being in the spotlight which prompts many of them to seek a public or prominent position in their work or other activities. They have great respect for knowledge and are often quite intelligent themselves. Tendency to harbor anger and resentment instead of allowing themselves some type of emotional release, can cause physical maladies and depression.

Women with Capricorn moon are likely to be ambitious at the expense of their personal life. More interested in gaining material wealth and status, or overburdened with too many responsibilities, they can miss the joy and satisfaction of relationships. They are excellent administrators. Men with Capricorn moon have difficulty relating to women. Relationships with females may be too formal to allow warmth and closeness, or the bond they share may be so tight as to be emotionally crippling. Their complicated emotional nature must be handled with considerable patience and understanding.

MERCURY

Mercury indicates mental outlook, intellectual endeavors, the way you think and communicate. It represents ideas, methods, and information. It rules your hands and thus your manual dexterity and mechanical skills. Mercury also describes transportation; that is, how you get where you're going physically and mentally. Do you speed with all possible haste or amble along taking a few detours here and there?

MERCURY in TAURUS

♀ in ♂

Individuals with Mercury in Taurus don't usually jump to conclusions or easily accept new ideas. Their thinking is structured and conservative, but their ideas are likely to be practical and constructive. If they believe an idea or method has no value, they abandon it for more useful endeavors. The stubborn nature of Taurus implies an ability in these individuals to develop great powers of concentration. However, unless they accept the need to learn in the first place, they obstinately refuse to concentrate or be taught. Their most productive approach to learning is through practical application. Once they see the practicality of something, they are motivated to learn the theory behind it. When it comes to the matter of learning and transportation they don't care to waste too much time. However, haste in getting where they are going is not as much of a goal as being able to take the most direct route.

VENUS

Venus rules your social attitudes and behavior, and your aesthetic tastes and inclinations. It is female relationships and social interactions at every level. Venus indicates your values. It describes romance, marriage and other partnerships, capacity for humor, and the pursuit of pleasure.

VENUS in TAURUS

♀ in ♂

Though they enjoy social gatherings, individuals with natal Venus in Taurus are not likely to rush around slapping everyone on the back, spouting one-liners or the latest gossip. They are not particularly glib or talkative unless other factors support it. Most of the time they prefer to keep a low but friendly profile. Consciously or subconsciously, they tend to make practical use of their social relationships. They are fond of music, art, food and fine wine, as well as all the other sensual delights of life. They can also become overly influenced by the lure of wealth and status. Warm, charming, and romantic, their affections are deep and long-lasting. When they feel insecure in relationships they can become possessive and jealous.

MARS

Mars rules physical energy and efforts. It describes the strength and direction of the physical force that drives your ego, fires your emotions, and encourages your mental endeavors and communicative skills. It describes male relationships and associations, risk-taking inclinations, and the physical challenges you are likely to encounter.

MARS in VIRGO

♂ in ♍

Individuals with Mars in Virgo possess a number of different kinds of physical and mental skills that allow them access to a wide range of activities. Writing, teaching, health care, interior design, or fashion design are just a few areas in which these individuals may direct their time and attention. They can be very self-disciplined, organized individuals who have no trouble dividing their energy among several projects at the same time. If other factors in their individual natal chart interfere, their sense of detail is lost in disorganization and sloppiness. Efforts to perfect their skills and abilities to impossible levels can be discouraged when they are confronted with the imperfection of reality. They need to develop tolerance for such imperfect situations or they can lapse into an idle and unproductive existence.

JUPITER

Jupiter rules your potential for growth and expansion on many levels; physical, intellectual, spiritual, cultural, and the accumulation of material assets, power, and status. It describes your optimism and aspirations. It represents your father and his position in society.

JUPITER in ARIES

♃ in ♈

Individuals with natal Jupiter in Aries find the areas in which they experience growth and expansion have a tendency to get out of control. How inclined or efficient they are at keeping control, or regaining control when it has been lost, is determined by other factors in their natal chart. Though they may be able to earn or attract wealth, they also have a tendency to spend what they have, making it hard for them to get ahead. They do not pay much attention to details or limitations, and can easily lose sight of reality but they also have the spirit and faith to make dreams come true.

SATURN

Saturn rules responsibilities, restrictions and limitations you are apt to encounter, and the lessons you must learn in life. It does not deny or diminish imagination, inspiration, spirituality, and good fortune but it does demand that these things be given structure and meaning.

SATURN in AQUARIUS

♄ in ♒

Individuals with natal Saturn in Aquarius are confronted with situations that in order to be successful need organization, dedication and stability, yet must also have room for freedom and original thinking. Somehow they have to effectively deal with the conflict between control and non-control. They are responsible for wise use of freedom, as well as accepting (or imposing) the rigidity of organization and discipline that are also necessary if anything is to be accomplished.

URANUS

Uranus rules personal as well as societal freedom. It indicates originality of thought and expression. In society it rules radical ideas and people as well as revolutionary events that upset established structures. Uranus takes approximately seven years to transit one sign, taking about 84 years to complete all twelve signs. Since groups of people with Uranus in the same sign are separated by 84 years, the influence of this planet in a sign is generational. The personal implications of Uranus in your life are described by its house position and the aspects it makes with other planets in your natal chart. It describes areas of unpredictability, and where you or your life style may be different than those around you. It relates to the unusual or unique. Friends and associations to which you belong are also indicated, as is your potential involvement with science and technology, computers, and the media.

URANUS in VIRGO

♅ in ♍

Virgo does not necessarily want to change things. Virgo inspires improvement and the ability to make proper use of what is already at hand. It will be up to the generation of individuals with natal Uranus in Virgo to explore new methods, concepts, and technology that enable society to deal more efficiently with existing resources, products, and institutions.

NEPTUNE

Neptune rules those who are oppressed or abandoned; the misfits of society. On a higher level it rules visionaries, and those who are glamorous and charismatic. It represents spirituality, mysticism, and ideals. Neptune is in one sign for approximately thirteen years, taking about 164 years to complete its cycle through all twelve signs. Since 164 years separate people born during its transit of one sign and those born when it returns, Neptune's significance in any sign is described as generational or historical. On a personal level, Neptune's house position and the aspects it makes with other planets in your natal chart will describe spirituality, abstract thinking, illusion, disillusionment, and other areas of your life where things aren't always what they seem. It rules derangement, guilt, persecution, and describes the potential for experiences related to confinement, abandonment, and addiction or physical intolerance to drugs.

NEPTUNE in SCORPIO

♆ in ♏

The latest period of Neptune in Scorpio was 1955-1970 and the influence of Neptune in Scorpio had observable impact. Sexual codes (Scorpio) prior to the 60's dissolved (a Neptunian influence). Sexually explicit material invaded the media and everyday life. Drugs and creation of a counter-culture eroded the family and traditional values (Neptune). Spying and secret surveillance (Scorpio) in public and private life were evident in fact and fiction.

PLUTO

Pluto takes approximately 248 years to make one cycle through all twelve signs. The period Pluto spends in each sign can vary from twelve years to thirty two years due to the eccentricity of its orbit. Like atomic energy (a force ruled by Pluto), the presence and direction of Pluto's energy are never obvious until it is used. Pluto's influence in any sign is interpreted as generational or historical. In your personal life, Pluto's significance is interpreted from its house position and the aspects it makes to other natal planets in your horoscope. Pluto rules intense energy, and describes the areas in which you consciously or subconsciously seek to exercise power or control. Pluto is also linked to your karmic responsibility, and in this respect, it describes the areas where you must gain the deepest level of understanding.

PLUTO in VIRGO

♅ in ♍

Pluto's last period in Virgo was 1957-1971. Virgo rules health, practical applications of science and technology, and the work force. During the recent Pluto transit in Virgo, the general state of America's health and welfare underwent unprecedented changes, computers came of age, and the once powerful unions experienced great loss of influence.

PART TWO: THE OUTER YOU

In Part Two you will read about the twelve houses of the horoscope. The houses represent areas of life in which you operate on a daily basis. You will read descriptions of how you handle the circumstances you encounter in each of these areas, according to your nature, personality and other traits as they are outlined in Part One.

HOUSE 1

The first house and the sign that rules the first house, which is also known as the Ascendant or Rising sign, describes your outer personality and physical attributes. To some extent it also describes your health and the type of illnesses you may experience.

LEO ASCENDANT

♌ on 1st

A Leo Ascendant indicates individuals who are likely to have strong physiques and lots of physical stamina. They are very stubborn and find it extremely difficult to break undesirable habits and behavior patterns. However, their tenacity and stamina can also be wonderful assets. When they get involved in something, they hang on long after everyone else runs out of steam, and they inspire others with their devotion to ideals and principles.

Leo indicates energy and enthusiasm. Once motivated, they seldom hesitate to act. In spite of their energy and enthusiasm however, they can also be inclined to physical laziness. Their natural enthusiasm is responsible for overabundance and a tendency to overestimate everything. When buying various personal items, for example, they often acquire far more than they need. Though often rash and hasty, their passions are sincere.

Leo is ruled by the sun, ruler of willpower and egotistical drives. It indicates the conscious or subconscious need to dominate, especially in those with more aggressive personalities. They want to have the last word in everything, and may come to believe their opinion is the only one worth considering. The negative potential for Leo Ascendant individuals is evidenced in those whose ego-driven personalities turn them into manipulative, power-oriented demagogues. Though most Leo Ascendant individuals are apt to be outgoing, they are not necessarily aggressive or loudly gregarious. Their personalities will be greatly influenced by the nature and strength of their willpower and ego involvement. If the willpower and ego are not strong, then neither is the personality apt to be assertive. No matter what the rest of the world may think of them, it is meaningless compared to what they think of themselves. Intense self-absorption makes it hard to accept guidance from others, and they may feel taking or asking for advice from others is a sign of weakness. They enjoy associating with others who make them appear at their best. They have great generosity, and their warm, friendly approach wins many friends, as well as inspires the envy of others with less popular personalities. Life will rarely be a routine existence.

They are apt to be very creative with special talent or ability in art, music, or the entertainment and communication industries. Overwork, anxiety, heart problems, lower back pains, and ailments connected with overindulgence are their most likely physical complaints.

MARS in 1st HOUSE

♂ in 1st

Mars in the first house indicates those who are often impatient and overly aggressive unless these tendencies are subdued by other factors in their personality or background. Red hair or ruddy complexion is another potential. They may not appear openly combative, but with very little provocation there is willingness to confront situations openly and with force. They seek to make definite impressions wherever they go, and are apt to exhibit resistance to every authority but their own. Most of these individuals have a distinctly masculine approach to things. Females as well as males with first house Mars can be described as hard drinkers, hard workers, and hard players. Once motivated, they seldom hesitate and will go after what they want with energy and enthusiasm. Though a prominent Mars position urges them to great activity, there may be too little thought or organization behind what they do and as a result, valuable time and talent can be needlessly wasted. If they possess a quieter personality, they may not be as openly aggressive or always as impatient as described above. However, they have an underlying energy and stamina that allows them to keep going long after others have run out of steam.

MARS conjunct URANUS

♂ ♂ ♃

There is an unpredictability about those with Mars conjunct Uranus. They may think of themselves as different, and it is likely that in many ways they are. With a strong sense of personal independence, sometimes just stubborn contrariness, they are sure to want to go their own way. Restless and daring spirits take them in many different directions, often ending up far from where they started out. Care must always be taken with machinery, even though they may be thoroughly familiar with its operation.

MARS conjunct PLUTO

♂ ♂ ♃

In most cases Mars conjunct Pluto indicates those with remarkable physical and emotional strength. They are apt to have endless capacity to work hard and play hard. The problem is that they can be too intense or aggressive at times which makes others feel ill at ease. Weaponry, psychology, counseling, raw materials, surgery, cooking, mines and caves, secret activities and groups, or renovations are particular areas of interest to these individuals.

URANUS in 1st HOUSE

♅ in 1st

Uranus in the first house indicates individuals who tend to be argumentative and who enjoy playing devil's advocate. They believe they are different and unique as an individual, or at least they want to give the appearance of being so. It is one reason they love to take the opposing side in discussions. The personality and appearance of these individuals are often somewhat off-beat or out of step with current fashion. Being different does not necessarily extend to a fiery or excitable nature. In fact, they are more likely to possess a calm, quiet, demeanor much of the time. They are capable, however, of such unexpected behavior and reactions, it is difficult to predict with certainty what they will do in any given situation. Though they may require a certain amount of personal independence, marriage is not usually a problem unless their partner becomes too dependent or too possessive. They can get restless if there isn't enough in their immediate environment to stimulate them but whether or not they will seek to change a boring existence, depends on other motivating factors in their personality and background. They are fascinated by strange and unusual things or people. Intrigued by futuristic topics and technologies, they also have great interest in the past. History and politics are usually their favorite subjects.

HOUSE 2

The second house describes material assets, how you handle monetary income, and the potential ways it may be earned. It also indicates the values and priorities you establish throughout life.

VIRGO on 2nd HOUSE

♍ on 2nd

Virgo ruling the second house indicates those who want to receive material, or at least some sort of tangible benefits from their ideas and thoughts. They want to be assured their ideas and thoughts have real value and many of them are apt to earn income from such fields as education, communication, writing, publishing, or through travel and transportation. Virgo's influence is also an indication they want to make the best use of income and other assets. They may also have tendencies to be critical in some way of their income. Under Virgo's influence many of these individuals keep track of every penny. The negative potential can mean the opposite, and the willingness or ability of these individuals to efficiently handle income is negligible. Virgo's influence suggests those who are adept at picking up on the priorities and value systems of other people. Knowing what others find important makes many of them opportunists, though it doesn't necessarily mean they will manipulate or exploit others.

PLUTO in 2nd HOUSE

♇ in 2nd

Pluto in the second house indicates those with intense desires. These individuals may focus so intently on attaining something that everything and everyone else becomes meaningless. They find it difficult, if not impossible, to give up one thing in order to attain another. Consciously or subconsciously, they tend to equate wealth or status with control or power. However, the real power these individuals can gain comes through their understanding that money and material assets may be attained but never really owned, and . . . that all things, including the amount of time and the physical body they are given at birth, are merely borrowed. Pluto's influence suggests the potential for complete regeneration of assets. It includes the potential for these individuals to experience circumstances that help them develop much deeper values and priorities. Other potentials include those who are more likely to leave an inheritance than to gain one. Pluto also suggests that by choice or circumstances, there may be secrecy associated with their income or assets.

HOUSE 3

The third house describes your mental state, intellectual orientation, self-expression and communication, early education, mechanical dexterity and skills, immediate environment (neighborhood), and siblings. It indicates physical actions, and transportation, especially within your immediate environment. To a certain extent the third house also describes the job or health of your father.

LIBRA on 3rd HOUSE

♎ on 3rd

Libra ruling the third house suggests those who are very sociable within their immediate environment. They will attempt to establish good relations with neighbors and actively participate in community projects, especially if they are invited to do so. They have close, or at least very cordial relationships with siblings and there is likely to be much visiting back and forth with each other. The negative potential can mean the opposite, and these individuals intentionally or unintentionally, get involved in neighborhood disagreements or may be antagonistic or aloof from neighbors as well as siblings. It may indicate a lack of siblings or that they will live in remote areas where there are no immediate neighbors. The influence of Libra on the third house suggests skills in the art of diplomacy and strategic planning. Their primary schooling is usually the place where they easily make friends, one of whom they may marry or with whom they might have a business partnership. Another possibility is that their marriage or business partners are found among those who live in the same neighborhood.

HOUSE 4

The fourth house describes your residence, domestic environment, and family members, especially your mother. It indicates the beginning as well as the end of various cycles in your life.

SCORPIO on 4th HOUSE

♏ on 4th

Scorpio ruling the fourth house indicates those who are apt to experience some profound trauma in childhood, usually the death of someone in the family or some form of physical or mental abuse by a family member that deeply affects how they view their own lives as adults. Whatever may have actually happened or how they reacted at the time, the situation ultimately gave them a sense they had no control over things. For this reason, they have difficulty as adults in relinquishing any control over their lives. This makes many of them reluctant to marry, or at least makes it hard to stay married to spouses who insist on having a definite input concerning domestic and family arrangements. The potential of Scorpio's influence on the fourth house also implies they will not experience the full realization of latent energies until later in life. There will be definite periods (especially after the age of thirty) that require complete new beginnings, though other factors will influence the potential outcome of endeavors to start over. They may or may not attempt to escape their childhood home or events, but somehow manage to keep returning to them again and again.

NEPTUNE in 4th HOUSE

♆ in 4th

Being an adopted child is one of the potentials for those with Neptune in the fourth house. Childhood experiences can make these individuals feel they were deprived or abandoned, even if it is not true. They may have a very spiritual, sensitive, or even psychic relationship with their mother. She herself may be deeply spiritual, intuitive or psychic. She may suffer from the use of drugs, or there may be secrets, scandal, or mystery surrounding her or her family. Other potentials include those whose home and family life can be vague or disjointed. Their domestic environment can also be very spiritual, or highly artistic and imaginative. Whatever the home or family is like, there are certain elements of illusion or confusion surrounding it. These individuals may reside near the ocean or other body of water. It is necessary for them to be able to retreat to their home and family in order to restore their mental and physical energies. However, they have to avoid the tendency to hide at home, refusing to face the reality of the outside world. Negative factors include danger of drowning, and those whose home may be damaged by water or gas.

HOUSE 5

The fifth house describes your creative talent and imaginative powers, capacity for enjoyment and the pursuit of pleasure, romance, children, and speculative ventures.

SAGITTARIUS on 5th HOUSE

♐ on 5th

Sagittarius ruling the fifth house indicates those with a strong sense of their own creative spirits. It is more than abundant expressions of artistic talent or vivid imagination since they may be lacking in these traits. Nor is this necessarily an indication of the procreation of many children since they may fail to produce offspring. Sagittarius influencing the fifth house does indicate those who want to feel that they are somehow set apart from the world while yet still a part of it, to associate themselves with higher spiritual or intellectual levels. However, there is also the potential that they possess generous, risk-taking spirits, merry temperaments, and are certainly not above the sincere enjoyment of delights they are offered in the physical world. The negative potential includes the possibility of disappointment or failure in romantic and speculative ventures. They can attribute the responsibility for some of these failures to their own immaturity and self-indulgence. Though they may or may not have children of their own, their attitude toward youngsters is warm and giving. They are also apt to be animal lovers.

HOUSE 6

The sixth house describes your job, daily responsibilities (paid and unpaid), and those who work for or with you. It also represents your health, and physical fitness.

CAPRICORN on 6th HOUSE

♑ on 6th

Capricorn ruling the sixth house indicates potential for heavy responsibilities connected with work and/or health. These individuals may be called upon to make total, unflinching commitments. Those whose individual nature is repelled by the idea of accepting work and tiresome responsibilities will suffer from their unwillingness. It is only by putting forth their very best and consistent efforts that progress is made, not only in their work, but also in terms of their health, personal growth and maturity as individuals. Whatever their job happens to be, it is better if it consists of a definite structure, that is, it includes definite prescribed methods and organization for accomplishing assigned tasks. Their co-workers may be few or they may even work alone. Capricorn's influence also implies job responsibilities will entail supervision of co-workers or at least the need to assist them. Illnesses may be few, but are likely to be lingering or of a chronic nature. There may be little opportunity or desire for pets, but if they do have pets, they are responsible, loving owners.

MOON in 6th HOUSE

☾ in 6th

Moon in the sixth house indicates vulnerability to a continuing variety of medical complaints, especially stomach or digestive disorders. The ailments of these individuals are usually not major threats but can disrupt their work and routine schedules. They are apt to operate a business from their home, or seek jobs related to homes, food, family life, women, or children. They develop mothering instincts and other strong emotional identification toward those who work for or with them. They may work better with women than with men. Work habits may be inconsistent as is their ability to stay in jobs. Their general health and psychological outlook are strongly affected by their work, and when the work environment or responsibilities are upsetting for some reason, inefficiency and absences are the result.

MOON square JUPITER

☾ □ ♃

Moon square Jupiter indicates those who tend to become too emotionally involved in situations they should leave entirely alone. Their curiosity aroused, they wander into these traps at every turn. A poor memory does little to remind them of the last time they committed the same error in judgment. These individuals are apt to have great communicative skills in one form or another, and their ultimate success comes through developing them.

MOON sextile NEPTUNE

☾ ✕ ♆

Moon sextile Neptune indicates those who with a remarkable sense of timing, though they are not always sure just how they manage to turn up in the right place at the right time. They are usually able to take advantage of opportunities because their innate sixth sense leads them in the right direction, or, in some cases, stops them from being misled by false situations that appear to others as valuable opportunities.

MOON trine PLUTO

Moon trine Pluto implies those with ability to strongly focus their energy and attention. They have clear, analytical minds unimpeded for the most part, by undue emotionalism. Many of them develop such personal magnetism they effortlessly attract the attention and affection of others, especially those in positions of power and status.

HOUSE 7

The seventh house relates to marriage and partnership or joint ventures of any kind. It describes how you interact with people and how others tend to regard you. The seventh house is associated with legal matters, negotiations, contracts, and all open confrontations, pleasant as well as adversarial.

AQUARIUS on 7th HOUSE

♒ on 7th

Many who have Aquarius ruling the seventh house and still manage to accomplish a long and stable marriage can count themselves fortunate since the influence of Aquarius here rarely allows such an arrangement. There is strong potential for more than one marriage or, no marriage at all due to the need for personal freedom. Marriage may be abruptly terminated with no warning, or it can occur suddenly and unexpectedly. Another implication is that there is something unusual or unorthodox about their marriages or marriage partners, or at least what may be thought of as unusual in their particular group or society. There is apt to be something about these individuals that makes them appear unusual or different to others, and they can expect to encounter some pretty strange people whenever they are out in public. They are apt to have the talent for making strangers feel so comfortable they feel they have known these individuals forever. The income of their marriage partners may be derived in areas that deal with those who are ill, handicapped or minorities. Other sources of their income may involve art, dancing, religion, charitable institutions, or areas that involve water, chemistry, photography, or maritime industries.

SATURN in 7th HOUSE

♄ in 7th

For those with Saturn in the seventh house, the biggest lessons in life involve relationships and how well they relate to other people in general. It is hard for them to establish quick or light-hearted contacts with others. Whether or not these individuals encourage it, others may regard them as an authority figure or at least very competent in some area. As a result, they either keep themselves in a constant state of turmoil trying to live up to what they think others expect of them, or they may totally avoid making commitments to others. They are apt to experience difficulty in getting others to cooperate. For them, marriage will not be without responsibilities. They may not succeed should they marry in haste, or their spouse may be sickly or a burden in some way. Other potentials include those for whom marriage is simply an easy path to security, those who marry someone much older, and those who develop such negative opinions about marriage that they avoid it altogether. In spite of these possibilities, Saturn does not doom the prospects for wedded bliss. Many of these individuals enjoy stable, long-lasting unions. If adversity does come along, it can make the alliance even stronger. Others may think these individuals have gained little or nothing by marriage. However, these individuals, as well as their spouses, may not share or be the least bit adversely influenced by such outside opinions.

HOUSE 8

The eighth house is related to taxes, debt, death, legacies, and the income you receive through marriage or business partner(s). It describes your resourcefulness, and your ability to develop and use material assets as well as personal skills and abilities. The eighth house also indicates sexual attitudes and behavior.

PISCES on 8th HOUSE

♆ on 8th

Pisces ruling the eighth house indicates those who have difficulty collecting what is owed to them. When lending money or granting favors, it should be with the idea of never realizing a return on their investment. Another potential is that they may have a tendency to distort facts regarding taxes or insurance matters, or may be falsely accused of such practices. The negative potential includes the possibility of being cheated of inheritance, or it may be considerably eroded before they can receive it. Mental disorders, physical disabilities or sensitivity to drugs may exist in the genetic makeup of their families. On the positive side, they may also inherit keen intellects, intuition, and artistic talent. There may be erosion or loss of the assets of their marriage or business partners. The income of their spouses as well as that of siblings, may be derived through maritime industries, religion, medicine, photography, psychology, or areas that involve the feet or that deal with the institutionalized, disabled, or minorities. A sibling may suffer from physical or mental disability, hypochondria, hard to diagnose illness, or drug or alcohol abuse.

HOUSE 9

The ninth house describes higher education, advanced training, publishing, publicity, advertising, politics, foreign travel, foreign studies, religious and philosophical views and activities, and cultural pursuits. It relates to court decisions, a second marriage, and in-laws. To a certain extent the ninth house also describes the job or health of your mother.

ARIES on 9th HOUSE

♈ on 9th

Aries ruling the ninth house indicates individuals who are apt to concentrate much of their energy and vitality on travel or the pursuit of higher education or specialized training. Politics, sports, philosophy, religion, sociology, theater, publishing, foreign studies or foreign trade are other possible areas that attract their attention and participation. If not involved professionally, they may nevertheless avidly pursue interest in one of these fields. Aries also indicates they may be in businesses that involve direct mail, advertising, or broadcasting. Home may or may not be where their hearts are, but not necessarily where their myriad of busy interests often lead. Negative possibilities connected with Aries on the ninth house include individuals who develop unrealistic idealism, or become victims of fanaticism. It also signals the potential for problems connected with attaining advanced degrees, the tendency to become overeducated, unfavorable court decisions, or disagreements with in-laws.

JUPITER in 9th HOUSE

♃ in 9th

Jupiter in the ninth house indicates those with intellectual curiosity, independent attitudes, idealism, and quickness of mind. They have great respect for knowledge, but there is no guarantee these individuals will be motivated to pursue higher education. It does suggest however, that they have a nose for news as well as gossip. Avid readers of newspapers and magazines, they are usually very well informed concerning political and social issues. There is potential talent for languages, diplomacy, or arbitration. They enjoy traveling, cultural pursuits, gambling, sports and other activities that offer intellectual and physical challenge. They have a strong religious or spiritual nature, a wonderful sense of humor, and a gift for story telling. Negative factors in their personality or background can mean mental laziness, disorganization, dishonesty, and a strong flair for exaggeration and overestimation.

HOUSE 10

The tenth house describes your career and other long-range goals, public reputation, superiors and those in authority. It also relates to your father and his influence in your life.

TAURUS on 10th HOUSE

♉ on 10th

Taurus ruling the tenth house indicates the likelihood of individuals who want to pursue careers that are worthwhile. Though monetary gain may certainly be a factor in their choices of direction in life, it is by no means the only one. They want whatever they go after and the things they achieve to be solid and enduring. If money is not a primary necessity or goal, they may be just as happy to work long and hard on a volunteer basis in order to achieve long range goals they believe are worthy of their time and attention. Possible career choices include art, music, banking, investment and finance, real estate, agriculture, architecture, landscaping and conservation. Flowers, leather, jewelry, and wood (trees) are things that may also be related to what they are destined to do. Unless there are negative factors in their background, the influence of Taurus suggests stable and sociable parental relationships, and fathers who may be especially handsome or have artistic talent.

MERCURY in 10th HOUSE

☿ in 10th

Mercury in the tenth house indicates individuals who want their thoughts and ideas conveyed to an audience. Even if they do not seek public attention for themselves, they want a public forum for their ideas, or in which to put these ideas into practice. They may write speeches for others, or become city planners and engineers. Others enjoy mental pursuits in public places such as chess matches in the park or writing letters to the editors of newspapers. There is also the potential for more than one career, or a dual-natured quality connected with their work. The negative potential of this Mercury house position includes difficulty in communicating with the father or other authority figures, and problems establishing their own authority. Mercury's influence in the tenth house is an indication of writers, teachers, public speakers, or politicians. Their career or profession may demand a great deal of traveling, or involve transportation or networking.

MERCURY conjunct VENUS

☿ ☿ ♀

There is no certain indication of the depth of intellect in individuals with Mercury conjunct Venus but they are sure to have humor and charm. They are good talkers and are apt to possess remarkable communicative or artistic talents. Their pleasure in learning can mean research and serious scholarship in some of them and fondness for gossip in others.

MERCURY square MARS

☿ ☐ ♂

Mercury square Mars indicates individuals likely to allow their ideas and thoughts to race too far ahead of the logic, facts, and information at hand. They have active, alert, and intelligent minds, but may have to develop more careful attitudes, better organization, or more complete foundations of evidence and understanding before they attempt projects. They can be quite accident prone at certain times.

MERCURY square SATURN

There is no lack of intelligence in those with Mercury square Saturn, but there may be some restriction or inhibition concerning self expression. They may cling to outmoded principles or be too dictatorial in communicating thoughts and ideas. They may suffer from lack of imagination or the means to express it. Mechanical skills can desert them at times, and care should be taken when operating machinery.

MERCURY square URANUS

☿ ☐ ♅

When it comes to expressing ideas, the thoughts generated by those with Mercury Uranus are either futuristic concepts or center around the past. This does not leave the success of their endeavors in jeopardy, but can cause confusion in trying to get projects off the ground when those around them believe they are too far ahead of the times or too far behind. They are apt to be clever and original thinkers. One of their complaints is having to look after boring details, and one of their problems is keeping track of papers and information no matter how organized they are.

VENUS in 10th HOUSE

♀ in 10th

Venus in the tenth house indicates those who tend to get noticed because of their talent, looks, charming personality, or all three of these assets. Unless factors in their background have resulted in the development of shyness or other inhibitions, they derive a great deal of pleasure from performing in public. They are excellent ad libs, impromptu speechifiers and toastmasters. Negative potential includes those who become an over dramatic, non-appeasable seeker of the spotlight who selfishly uses relationships to further their own career or goals. It can also mean difficult relationships with family and authority figures. The positive influence of Venus suggests great popularity and friends in prominent positions. The father may be especially handsome or possess artistic talent.

VENUS square MARS

♀ ☐ ♂

Venus square Mars indicates those apt to exhibit a certain social awkwardness; diamonds in the rough, as it were. Quick tempers and a too aggressive approach in dealing with others have to be softened by other factors in their personalities and backgrounds. Romance can be more a matter of passion or expedience than anything else, either on their part or in those with whom they share such relationships. Their instincts or talent in art or music tend more toward the bold and blunt than the subdued or elegant.

VENUS square SATURN

♀ ☐ ♄

Venus square Saturn by no means indicates lack of generosity in these individuals, though others may not be generous toward them. Financial debts seem to occur easily and frequently, either through their own extravagance, inability to manage income, or as a result of being responsible for debts incurred by others. Social efforts may be fraught with obstacles but in the end, those who persevere get what they want.

VENUS square URANUS

Venus square Uranus indicates those who may have pleasant dispositions but underneath this demeanor want to assert their independence in social situations.

They can be stubbornly addicted to their own opinions, feisty, defensive, and argumentative. Unexpected, sudden, or unusual romantic encounters may be real or fancied. Traditional social situations are acceptable but once in a while they pursue more unorthodox patterns.

HOUSE 11

The eleventh house rules friendships, organizations to which you belong, and income derived from self-employment or career (as opposed to wages earned from a job). It relates to the role you play in the lives of others as child, parent, lover, spouse, friend, social or business associate. The eleventh house also describes your hopes and aspirations and capacity for happiness.

GEMINI on 11th HOUSE

♊ on 11th

Gemini ruling the eleventh house indicates individuals who are likely to need and use their friends as sounding boards and inspiration for their thoughts and ideas. They are also apt to get heavily involved in various fraternal associations and societies, playing an active role by holding office or serving on various committees. They are usually the ones who write for or publish newsletters or communications put out by the organizations to which they belong. They are often close friends with their siblings. The negative potential includes individuals who become too involved with gossip and superficial friendships or are the victims of such situations. The influence of Gemini suggests that their friends include twins. Friendships are also likely among educators, writers, salespeople, mechanics, secretaries, researchers, and those involved with computers. These individuals also enjoy pen pal friendships. There is a tendency to have more acquaintances than real friends, which may or may not have to do with the fact that many of the contacts they form are based on mental rapport rather than emotional commitment.

SUN in 11th HOUSE

☉ in 11th

Sun in the eleventh house indicates those whose personal identification in life is tied to friendships, social contacts, children for whom they are responsible, and organizations to which they belong. They may be excellent managers of organizations but inattentive in handling their personal affairs. Business acumen can bring wealth and status but they may prefer to remain in humble or temporary surroundings that do not require attention or care. Wide-ranging goals supersede their desire to be confined by too many material possessions. However, they can never have too many friends or amusements. Their ego is thrust outward into society, which means their activities and talents must be expressed in that direction. They are natural promoters and fund raisers.

SUN trine SATURN

Sun trine Saturn indicates individuals with a certain type of luck. There is no lucky throw of the dice they can count on, it is usually luck they make for themselves. They may not win at horse races, but they will always come out ahead in situations where they have worked hard and for which they have prepared well. Their own actions or other people impressed with their past prudence and hard work provide any additional help they need to get ahead.

HOUSE 12

The twelfth house describes the private and hidden side of life; your subconscious mind, dreams, the past, and those who wish you harm or work against your interests. The twelfth house relates to sorrow, disappointment, loss, solitude or confinement, hidden fears and worry. It also has connection with the job or health of your marriage or business partner.

CANCER on 12th HOUSE

♋ on 12th

Cancer ruling the twelfth house indicates the likelihood of individuals who develop a strong interest in the occult, the arcane, the subconscious, and planes of existence beyond physical reality. However, given the strong emotionalism associated with the influence of Cancer there is also danger that their dealings with such matters can become extreme or get out of hand in some way. They can become their own worst enemy by developing the conscious or subconscious idea there is loss connected with emotional commitment. There is also potential they will become victims of the past by refusing to accept that though the past can teach valuable lessons, it cannot be erased. In any event, they may often be reminded of the past by events connected with it or people from their past who keep returning. Whether they rise above such thoughts or become victims of their own emotions, is indicated by other aspects in the rest of their natal charts. It is almost certain that at one time or another, they will experience secret or clandestine attachments. They are apt to have strong intuitive powers, though it would be a mistake were they to rely on such skills to function consistently.
